

I have been using xm since it first came out and the reason that I use xm over any other radio is because of the quality service that am and fm do not provide. I pay every month for the xm channels and I feel that if the people pay for the services than the government have no right to step in and tell me what I get to listen to.